They have led us not only in the ways of learning, but along the roads of citizenship and practical experience . . . all valuable parts of our education. They have helped us in our class projects and extracurricular interests. The best way of expressing our sincere thanks is by staying on the paths along which they have started us.

Class History

1954-55 PAPOOSES

As typical freshmen we had our first taste of high school on the Winter Street Reservation. Class officers—Billy Regan, Stephen Poole, Carol Johnson, Janice Case, with Miss Wrightson as advisor. We were impressed by the following—lunch in the basement, clean-up, paint-up of home rooms—gym on the front lawn—the ice cream man—coke machine that kept our nickels—flooded basements—the coat room—the seniors we looked up to—"Bimbo" at Talent Night—325th anniversary of Saugus—Miss Fox and "105"—Mr. Doucette—Study Hall and Library—Class Outing at Nantasket. Fads—Fats Domino—pegged pants with leopard skin insets and alligator shoes.

1955-56 BRAVES

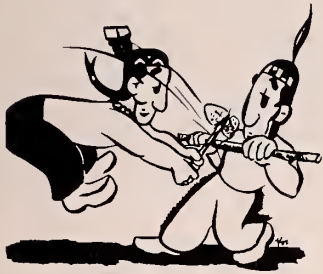

As wise sophomores we changed reservations to the new High School—Class Officers—Stephen Poole, Richard Secor, Vivian Fisher and Janice Case, with Miss Wrightson as our counsellor. The things most remembered now: regular gym class and gym suits—our dance, "Fantasyland," in the cafeteria—Frank Swain's bathtub used for our "wishing well"—Big Snow Storms—no school—cheering tryouts, twirling tryouts—the lucky ones: Roberta Johnson, Tony Coviello, Priscilla Copeland, Marilyn Wall, Ann Petrie, Kathy Trepsas—Girls' Basketball Team—No Home Room Competition for Talent Night—The record survey—The Road Rebels—Our First Bomb Scare—Inter-room Sports competition—No shops and no auditorium for half a year.

1956-57 WARRIORS

We've advanced one more step—Led by Richard Secor, Richard Boyle, Phyllis Hood, Janice Case—Mr. Evans is our new counsellor—This is a year we won't forget—Speech Classes—More bomb scares—poor football and basketball season—Good hockey and baseball season—Stephen Poole as Santa Claus—Outside Pep Rallies—paid assemblies—15 new teachers—Sully's doughnuts—Elvis Presley haircuts—Junior Prom, "Almost Paradise," King and Queen, Phyllis Hood and Dick Boyle—Class Rings—"Snick"—Wesley Hollett won "Good Brotherhood" Essay contest—Snap Jack shoes—Our first real formal—Senior Reception near the close of the year—The new usherettes and V.A. members are elected—also Co-Captains Comeau and Rohrbacher—Knee socks and Bermudas—Nantasket Beach.

1957-58 CHIEFS

"Outta the way, freshman, I'm a Senior." This was our attitude as we started our last year. Class officers Dick Boyle, Dick Collins, Phyllis Hood, Ann Petrie, with Mr. Abbott as advisor—Each Club President described his organization to the entire student body. Good football—good basketball—poor hockey—Senior Prom, "Stairway to the Stars"—King and Queen, Diane Moore and Dickie Collins—class colors and motto selected in the fall—many indoor pep rallies—Mascot Squad—Mr. Pearce and his moon boots—Sack dresses—colored ankle socks—Last Girls' Club Dance—All-School Play—Senior Play, Room for the Groom—Senior Pictures—Spoon Men—Washington trip—Ski Trip—First V.A. Sky Trip—Dick Collins elected Student Representative for Good Government—Style Show—Record Hops—Annual—Senior Class Day—Senior Day—Class Banquet—Class Outing—Baccalaureate—Graduation, Man! this was the fastest year of all!

Almost Paradise

Stairway to the Stars

Class Will

We, the graduating class of the year 1958, after four long years of formidable stacks of books, hurried lunches, hours of session, being presumably of sound mind and body, do take account of stock and do hereby, make, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament, and we do hereby revoke, apostalize, and swallow all former wills, testaments, and codicils which have accumulated during our high school career.

To our principal, John A. W. Pearce, we leave new plaid shoestrings for his moon-boots, and we express gratitude for his help and understanding.

To Mr. Abbott we leave a Handy Dandy Advisor's Kit, complete with an extra crown.

To Mr. McCullough we leave a three speed dictaphone, slow, slower, most slow.

To Mr. Watson we leave a can of lubricating oil for his slide rule.

To Mr. Struzziero we leave ten cases of "Red Cap Refresher" for his chem lab.

To Miss Hayward we leave many unusual excuses for unexplained absences.

To Mr. Strout we leave a box of Tide for his laundromat.

To Miss Marison and Miss Towle we leave all the hard work of putting together next year's Annual.

To Mr. Burns we leave the incinerator full of the following books: Return of the Native, Macbeth, all book reports, poetry, and all such literature befitting the occasion.

To Mr. Johnson, the janitor, we leave Jack Benny's violin.

Finally, that we may, as individuals, not be forgotten, we each have a donation to make:

James Virnelli leaves Breakheart Reservation without a "Jungle Buggy."

Edward Walz departs to teach the "Rumba."

Class Prophecy

Charles Juffre is condensing steam for people who blow their tops.

Beverly Marotta has just made her first million selling instruments for putting toothpaste back in the tube.

Frank McAskill is making cages for bird brains.

Henry (O-G) Oljey is making nests for thunder-birds.

Ronald Stazinski, "Labor," is still giving his history teacher trouble.

James Allen has just been named Professor of the Year by the Look and See magazine.

Anne Garland is following Liberace's path. (She just went into partnership with her brother George.)

Robert Crowell plays basketball with a glove in one hand and a guitar in the other. (He's so versatile) !!!

John Chappie is the owner of "Chappie's Easy to Take Apart Cars, Inc."

Ray Couturier, known as "Happy Doc" Couturier, is owner of the Rat Trap.

Marie Shipp is a telephone operator at Northeastern.

Paul Gouveia is setting up a service station in the S.H.S. parking lot for helpless girls; his specialty is flat tires.

Ralph Brown is now making red Davy Crockett hats for bald-headed men.

Bill Danahy is selling stilts to short-legged turkeys. (Ever see a turkey on stilts?)

Pete Dixon is trumpeting his way to fame playing reveille in the army.

William Colyer is experimenting with bony knee pads for bony people on a basketball team.

Janice Dexter has invented green lipstick for jealous girls.

Paul Mahoney is taking a long walk on a short pier.

Geoffrey Weiner lost his pipes playing poker.

Harold Brennan is President of the J. A. Company that lost two million dollars. (They're barking in his cellar right now.)

Jean, "the ticket taking kid," Hancock graduates from ticket taking to ticket selling.

Marcia Farley is the only woman in the construction company wearing a mink coat.

Norman Down is getting out of a straitjacket at the North Pole.

DeCain, Vinnie, is subbing for Liberace.

Janet Broatch (Baldy) is selling toupees to bald-headed eagles.

Diane Moore has moved the bus stop to the front of her house.

Priscilla Copeland is the star center on the Celtics' Basketball Team.

Marilyn Wall is the proprietor of the Wall Beauty Shops which specialize in hair cutting and bleaching.

Toni Coviello is busy trying to invent an eyebrow pencil that covers up holes in Bermuda shorts and is still roller skating through Medford.

Vivian "Art Room" Fisher is running a tattoo salon.

"Talkie Ann Floccher," is having her fourth phone installed.

Janice Case has become the composer of the currently popular "Songs to be Sung in the Shower" series.

Richard Secor owns his own "Apothecary Shop"—At last! At last!

Laurel Gay is still trying to find an "Old Maid."

Rose McCormack has volunteered to test a new formula that will cure any phobia against the little red schoolhouse.

Judie Swenson is typing stories for high school girls who don't have the gift for story writing.

Neil Heyland is selling answer papers to Friday mechanical drawing students who leave their weekly blueprints until Thursday night.

Charles Carroll is now writing Easter songs.

John Gould is still leading cheers at football games.

Earl Dumas is still trying to invent a heavy duty rope for gym classes.

Gerri Lucey is running a beauty salon for long haired politicians, giving out snappy slogans with every haircut.

Steve White has just finished going through college to get his G.M. degree (grease monkey).

SHOPPING FOR A JOB?

CHECK WHAT YOU WANT:

- Good starting salary
with regular raises*
- Pleasant work with other girls and young men*
- Prestige of a responsible job with a well-known and respected company*

If your list shows three checks, then you should check into what the Telephone Company has to offer you. Smart girls are doing it now, before they graduate from high school. Come in and see our employment interviewer soon. You'll enjoy talking with her.

Act now, and you can say with pride, "I'm all set! I'm going to work with the Telephone Company!"

See the Guidance Counselor at your school, and talk first with her about when and where to apply.

To Miss Helen Towle, faculty advisor of the Tontoquonian and Miss Hazel C. Marison, faculty advisor of the Sahico Club, for their patience and help.

To Mrs. Mary Anderson for the organization of the class will, prophecy, and history.

Once again the end of the school year is here. Some will walk out of the classrooms of Saugus High School forever. Some will be happy, some will be sad. Others will be bewildered by the future ahead, but most will be prepared to face that future squarely and honestly, knowing full well they are ready.

As we leave Saugus High School, may we do our best to follow the inspiration and high standards that have been set for us.
